Price and Service Information

As a small, private client firm with an extensive variation in matter types and client circumstances we are unable to provide meaningful costs information relating to our conveyancing and probate work on this website.

In order to provide such information, we first need to speak to the client and discuss the precise nature and extent of the work likely to be required. We aim to be competitive and clear in all our pricing structures and ensure it is tailored to your needs.

Costs information will always be incorporated into our client care documentation and we are happy to discuss any concerns or queries you may have before instructing us.

All fee earning work is carried out under the supervision of the Principal, Jacqueline Campion who established Campion Solicitors in 2010, having qualified as a solicitor in 1993.

Jacqueline is experienced in all aspects of private client work.

John Cartlidge is our Probate Consultant qualified and practiced as an Independent Financial Advisor although over the last 20 years or so has applied his knowledge of taxation, investments, banking and trusts to assist Solicitors and Executors dealing with estate matters.

Should you require further clarification please call our office and speak to Jackie Campion.
